COMMUNICATION ABOUT KENDEIL CAPACITORS AS GENUINE PRODUCTS

Dear Customer

We like to inform all the valued customers of Kendeil srl with the following notes.

Kendeil srl of Italy is the unique owner of the brand name of the aluminium electrolytic capacitors called "Kendeil", well known in the professional marketplace of electronic components as one of the leading factory in Italy and Europe.

The products have been manufactured with our unique know-how and all the capacitors have their distinctive characteristic, in reliability and look-and-feel.

Recently we have been reported about the presence in the market of some counterfeit Kendeil capacitors and we are investigating to realize where they have been manufactured and how it has been possible to happen, nevertheless we are taking actions to prevent any improper use of our brand worldwide.

We are very concerned about the matter and we strongly advise you to purchase Kendeil capacitors products only from authorized distributors or from companies that offer genuine products sourced from Kendeil or directly from Kendeil main office sales.

Nobody else then Kendeil srl, whose complete address is reported in this paper, could make an order or ask for samples of products, without our written permission. If ever you have any doubt about your current sales channels or about the genuine Kendeil product, we will be more than happy to help you, just write an email or fax.

The updated list of official Kendeil distributors is on our website: www.kendeil.com

Your help to prevent any abuse of the brand of Kendeil capacitors will be very appreciated for our mutual business.

Sincerely

Angelo Bonini
Kendeil General Direction
